THE

FRIEND

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

VOLUME LXVIII.

150004

PHILADELPHIA:
PRINTED BY WM. H. PILE'S SONS, 1895.

XUM

INDEX.

Ackworth School. Account of the origin of, 377.
Address on the liquor traffic by Friends in Ohio. Extracts from an, 54.
to our fellow-citizens, issued by the Quarterly Meeting of Friends held in Philad'a Eleventh Month 5th, 1894, 170.
Affliction. The bearing of, properly qualifies for usefulness, 95.
Africa. Address of the late Yearly Meeting in London, upon slavery and the slave trade in, 42.
The ravages caused by gin, &c., among the natives of West, 405.
Agriculture. On the advantage to, of insectivorous birds, 50.
The blighting effects of early frost in Sweden, prevented by artificial means, 165.
The largest producing farm in the world, 187.
Mode of, on a typical California farm, 197.
Alexander Ann. Notice of a prediction of, made in Philadelphia, 122.
Martha. Testimony of Woodbridge Monthly Meeting, England, concerning, 10.
Mary. Selections from the life and religious experience of, with comments, 10. 19. 25. 33. 41 49. 57. 65. 73. 81. 87. 89. 97. 105. 113. 121. 129. 137. 145. 153.
III of Russia. Respect of, manifested towards an English nurse, 167.
"All the way through." On the necessity of honesty in dealing, entitled, 35.
Alpine landslip. Account of an, 387.
Alum Rock Canyon and Park, California. Description of, 381.
Amber. The supply of, 29.
Animals. Remarks on cruelty to, 85.
Antiquity of man. On the, 2. 14. 21. 30.
Antarctic explorations. Remarks on the small number of, &c., 238.
Appeal of the religious Society of Friends of Germantown, Philadelphia, to their Christian friends and neighbors, 282.
Arctic islands. Notice of large amounts of fossil ivory &c., found in, 382.
Arbitration in international disputes advocated in the Austrian Parliament, 271.
The progress of, between Great Britain and the United States, 282.
The practice of, growing, 395.
A case of, between England and Holland, 407.
Architecture. On simplicity in, approved, 67.
Arcturus probably the largest star of which we have knowledge, 191.
Argon. Notice of the discovery and properties of, 278. 288. 342.
Asphaltum. The collection, &c., of, in Trinidad, 166.
Atmosphere. A new and unknown gas believed to exist in the, 135.
Australia. On the meat trade of, 27.
Account of dangerous wanderings in, 316.
The havoc wrought in, by rabbits, 335.
Autumn leaves. On, 149.

Ball. Notice of a charity, given under the auspices of a religious organization, and comments, 271.
Baptism by water of a professed Friend. Remarks on, 55.
with Holy Ghost and with fire. On the effects of, 323.
Water, as it is in history, by Cyrus W. Harvey, 389. 393. 401. 412.
Barclay John. Reply of, to a young Friend on plainness of dress, 218.
Remarks of, on the lapsed character of London Yearly Meeting, 257.
Remarks of, on the testimony of Friends to plainness of dress and address, 389.
Robert. On the character of the ministers and ministry that Friends plead for, 55.
Testimony of Ballington Booth to the Apology of, 155.
Bartram's Garden. Notice of a visit to, 6.
Barnard Hannah. Remarks on the defection and disownment of, 181.
Barber Joshua. A testimony concerning the religious character and life of, 266.
Being moved by the Spirit. Essay entitled, 189.
Bessemer process for making steel considered the greatest invention of this century. The, 135.
Blessings. The advantage of appreciating our, while we have them, 119.
Blind woman. Account of a pious, 308.
Book notices, &c. An account of Friends, published by "The Christian Literature Society," 7.
"Witnesses for Christ," by Edw. Backhouse and Chas. Tyler, 2nd edition, 7.
The American Friend, 15.
Address on the liquor traffic by Friends of Ohio. 54.
Map of meetings in London Yearly Meeting, 63.
Footprints and Waymarks for the help of the Christian traveller, by Joseph Walton, 112.
The Life of John G. Whittier, by Samuel T. Pickard, 159.
Incidents in the life of Richard Davies, by Wm. C. Allen, 160.
An Address to our fellow-citizens issued by the Quarterly Meeting of Friends of Philadelphia, 167
Wavelets, by D. S. Pennell, 168.
Quakerism as a factor in the world's history, by J. E. Southall, 189.
Why not ordain whom God calls to preach His Gospel? by W. A. Sellew, 199.
Evangelicalism from the standpoint of the Society of Friends, 207.
The Days of Makemie, 229.
The United Friend, 239.
Appeal of the Religious Society of Friends at Germantown to their Christian friends and neighbors, 282. 287.
Southern Quakers and Slavery, by Dr. Stephen B. Weeks, 303.
History of the Religious Society of Friends, called by some the Free Quakers, 340.
Report of the Franklin Reformatory home for 1895, 407.
Books. On the advantage to the youth, of an early acquaintance with Friends', 61.
Boy. A warning given by a, against cigarettes, 399.
Boys' brigades in connection with a religious organization. Notice of a protest against, 39. 167. 282. 287.
An inquiry into, by Josiah W. Leeds, 194.
Objections to, 214.
a means of making boy murderers, 245.
On the introduction of, among Moravians, 363.
Born from above. Essay entitled, 274.
Botanic garden in Philadelphia. Notice of a, 406.
Bowman Cornelius and Israel D. Titus. Incident connected with the ministry of, 285.
Brooks Phillips. A kind deed done by, 183.
Brown John, the theologian. Anecdote of, when a "herd laddie," 270.
Joshua. Extracts from memoranda of, and comments, 132. 140. 148. 155. 161. 172. 178.
William, a hero. Account of, 332.
Browne Joseph. Notice of the imprisonment of, for his testimony against tithes, 41.
Briggs Thomas. Brief notice of, 213.
Bubbles. The folly of catching at, 383.
Buckland William. On the character and scientific labors of, 325.
Budd's Lake and the New Jersey highlands. A recent visit to, 20. 28. 34.
A botanical excursion to, 106. 118. 122. 390. 396.
Buffalo. A herd of, in an inaccessible ranch in Utah, 414.
Bullard John. An address by, to Friends of Tecumseh Meeting, 142.
Bullet-proof coat of rods. A, 71.
Bullock Jeffrey. The evidence of the sound Christian belief and testimony of early Friends, furnished in the case of, 183. 206.
Business. On the necessity of looking for Divine guidance in our temporal, 180.
The value of utilizing waste products in, 367.

California. A vacation in Southern, 330. 338.
Camm John and John Audland. Remarks on the ministry of, 215.
Campaigning and soldiering. A soldier's experience of, 364.
Camping trip to Southern California. A, 130. 138.
Card-playing. Observations on, and a caution against, 344.
Caton William. Brief account of the life and religious character of, 99. 107. 114. 124.
Cazotte. Account of the prophecy of, and comments, 67. 101.
Character. A test of, in two school boys, 214.
Chalk. On the formation of, 246.
Charitable giving. Instance of, in the life of Mary Hemenway, 11.
Excess in, enfeebles the self-respect of the receiver, 63.
Remarks of a miser upon, 67.
Money saved from excess and fashion bestowed in, 205.
Charles Philip, of Pondoland, South Africa. The work of Divine grace in, 139.
Chiefest among ten thousand. Essay entitled The, 293.
Chain-gang. Barbarities of the, exposed in Georgia, 231.
Chicago. Politicians in, promoted from the criminal classes, 6.
China. The great injury done to, by the opium traffic, 6.
On the origin of certain customs in, 267.
Children. Earnest advice to Friends to watch carefully over their, 209.
In the discipline of the home, parents are educated by their, 221.
On getting angry with, at the wrong time, 277.
On the need of great care in training, 294.
Advice of a tender father to his son, 335.
Inquiry of a child to her mother, if she was a Christian, 343.
A mother's anxiety over her son, 343.
The necessity of Divine wisdom in our conduct towards, 370.
Christ. The only effectual hindrance to the reception of, is in one's heart, 10.
and He only, the strength of Christianity. Testimony of Archdeacon Farrar to, 155.
The light of, enlightens every man, 191. 331. 372.
Illustration of the priesthood of, as shown in the Council at Jerusalem, 195.
A fraudulent narrative of the life of, exposed, 199.
The awful condition of those who deny, 204.
The guidance promised by, to the churches, is that of the Spirit of Truth, 207.
All temptations are to be overcome through the aid of, 262.
On regeneration through, 274.
The blessedness of taking heed to the voice of, 330.
On believing on, through taking heed to his light in the heart, 331.
How, saves man, 372.
On learning in the school of, 378.
Testimony of William Penn concerning the divinity of, 381.
The importance of the labors of a servant of, 404.
Testimony borne by an infidel to the value of the gospel of, 407.
Christian. One cannot be truly a, without righteousness, 52.
priesthood. Essay entitled, 114.
On the conversation becoming a, 123.
warrior. Advice to a, 366.

4
Per 93911
v.68-69

Christian advices of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting. Extract from, in relation to attending parties, 123.
life. On the effects of a consistent, upon others, 346.
Endeavor Society disbanded in a religious congregation as unnecessary. A, 407.
Christian's rule. Essay entitled, The, 410.
Church. Essay entitled The, and comments, 27.
The power of the, dependent upon the presence of the Holy Spirit, 127.
Objections to the one-man system in the, 279.
The life of the, may be sapped by too many organizations within it, 287.
Remarks on causes destructive of spiritual life in the, 325.
On the character of that faith which must be maintained in the, 355.
Churchman George. Letter of, 83.
Clarkson Thomas. Letter of, in 1819, on the colonization of the blacks, 302.
Clarkson's Portraiture of Quakerism. Remarks on the value of, 250.
Clement. Notice of the character of, and his epistle to the Corinthian church, 294.
Cook Bella, an aged invalid. Sketch of the life and Christian character of, 284.
Colorado. Account of cliff ruins in, 244, 250.
ranch. Description of a, 413.
College students. Advice to, 130.
Consistency in small things. Remarks of Hannah More on, 67.
Conversation. Remarks on guarding well our, 123.
Cope Alfred. Notice of a gift of, to the Zoological Gardens in Philadelphia, 47.
Samuel. Notice of religious communications of, 3.
Cornish George. Brief account of the life and religious labors of, 213.
Corundum. Notice of a bed of, in Delaware County, Pennsylvania, 141.
Council at Jerusalem. Essay entitled The, 195.
Courtesy to servants. The duty of, 117.
Compassion rewarded. Incident entitled, 221.
Covenant of food in the East, 133.
Comet. Remarkable changes in the appearance of a, 166.
Convictions. Religious, distinguished from sentimental feelings, 143.
Converted purse. Extract entitled, A, 205.
Copper mine. Notice of the Anaconda, Montana, 326.
Countess. Account of the life and labors of Adeline Schimmelmann a, of Denmark, 358.
Croker John. Account of the life and religious experience of, 146. 154. 163.
Crow. Incident entitled, A gospel, 315.
Crisp Stephen. Remarks of, on the effect upon him of the love of God, 279.
Cryostase. Curious properties of, 199.
Cuyamaca. Account of an ascent of Mount, 330.

D'Aubigné. Record by, of the enlightenment of his understanding over all infidel doubts, 275.
Dana. Prof. of Yale. Testimony of, as a religious scientific man, 399.
Dancing. Remarks of Theo. L. Cuyler against, 135.
Danes and their country. Account of the, 82. 93.
Davis Joshua of New Market, Ont. Brief sketch of the life of, 282.
Death. Lessons taught by the, of a Christian in a heathen land, 379.
Deaths.—Sarah L. Abbott, 168; William Abbott, 176; Edward Bettle, 8; Lydia T. Barnard, 80; Esther C. Bales, 136; Hannah J. Bonsall, 144. 160; Caroline W. Bonsall, 168; Rebecca J. Balderston, 184; John Blackburn, 208; Amy Blackburn, 208; Lucinda Baily, 224; Martha Ann Balderston, 232; Samuel F. Balderston, 232; Martha A. Barnwell, 296; Charlotte B. Butler, 392; William S. Comfort, 8; James W. Copeland, 24; Lydia E. Copeland, 40; Joshua Cope, 104; James Carey, 120; Martha Carson, 192; Mary Crew, 192; Joshua Clayton, 200; Samuel E. Comfort, 240; Jane H. Coppock, 264; Elizabeth H. Cooper, 288; Kesiah Cook, 352; Sarah Ann Cooper, 360; Nathan Cook, 408; Hannah W. Dixon, 112; Jane DeCou, 176; Joshua Davis, 282; Mary Downing, 320; Robert M. Elfreth, 24; Lydia P. Eldridge, 112; Lydia T. Evans, 144; Amy S. L. Exton, 144; Andrew Eves, 224; Lydia C. Eves, 224; Susan Evans, 232; Martha Evens, 232; Mary Embree, 264; Anna C. Fisher, 280; Thomas Y. French, 328; Ann Eliza Fox, 408; Milicent Gregg, 88; Joshua Gilbert, 224; Lydia Gibbons, 240; Elisha Gamble, 295; Abraham Gibbons, 376; Ann E. Haines, 96; Joseph Heacock, 144; William H. Hare, 152: Benjamin Hawley, 168; Anne S. Hoopes, 168; Mary B. Heston, 248; Jesse B. Hall, 256; Mary Jane Hockett, 256; Sarah Ellen Hartley, 256; Harriet Heald, 336; Elwood E. Haines, 376; Elizabeth E. Haines, 376; Mary Hoyle, 408; Israel H. Johnson, 40; Dr. David James, 64; Frederick Jacob, 72; Jonathan Jones. 104; Mercy H. Jones, 232; Ann M. Jones, 384; Edward C. Jones, 392; Christiana Kirk, 16; Isaac B. Lupton, 48; Jane E. Lee, 80; Charles T. Lukens, 232; Elizabeth S. Leeds, 248; Elizabeth E. Lawrence, 256; Rebecca Lupton, 320; Henry C. Lippincott, 344; Rachel S. Lippincott, 352; Margaret Blair Morris, 176; John Maris, 224; William Maris, 312; Rebecca K. Masters, 392; John Naylor, 232; Anna M. Ogden, 264; Aaron Parker, 80; Robert Plummer, 88; Henry Pickett, 128; Joseph Penrose, 160; Jacob Parvin, 248; Uriah Price, 280; Dr. James E. Rhoads, 208; Elizabeth Roberts, 256; James Cresson Roberts, 304; Daniel C. Rich, 408; Edward Sharpless, 8; Eliza J. Stroud, 8; Joseph Stanton, 64; Anna N. Stokes, 88; Lydia M. Smith, 184; Ruth H. Sharpless, 272; Hannah H. Smedley, 280; Jane B. Smith, 288; Nancy Spencer, 320; Harriet E. Stalker, 320; Mary N. Spencer, 320; Martha L Spencer, 320; Mary R. Strawn, 328; Elwood Thomas, 248; Joseph Tatnall, 408; Lydia White, 16; William Worth, 40; Edward Williams, 72; Mary Wistar, 96; Mary Woolman, 192; Elizabeth Worthington, 232; James T. Wilbur, 272; Isaac P. Wilbur, 272; Caleb Webster, 360. 384; Bessie Webster, 384; Mary Williams, 392.
Decency again vindicated, 111.
Defaulter. Remarks on the career and exposure of a bank, 271.
Demoralizing literature. Some of the evil effects of, 245.
Detraction and tale-bearing to be discouraged, 338. 357.
Diana. The recent discovery of the ruins of the temple of, in Ephesus, 283.
Discouraging thoughts. Divine power can overrule, 373.
Divine Grace. Exhortation to follow closely the teachings of, 231.
is extended to the sinner, 327.
truth produces an external testimony, 307.
hand. Man prone to underestimate the works of the, 399.
Diving for pearls. Experiences in, 375.
"Do the best you can." Advice of a grandfather to his grandson, 77.
Dog. Eight lives saved by a, 309.
Dress. Remarks of Hannah More on the duty of Christian mothers in reference to, 67.
An unrestrained passion for, often leads women to subsequent errors and distress, 119. 362.
Pride, extravagance, and worldly conformity in, emphatically condemned in the Bible, 132.
The testimony of Friends in relation to plainness of, 169. 177. 395.
Thin white flannel recommended as a, in hot climates, 182.
Remarks of John Barclay to a young Friend under discouragement in reference to plainness of, 218.
Advice of London Yearly Meeting in 1739, in regard to plainness of, 225.
Remarks of Phebe R. Gifford in assuming the, of a consistent Friend, 239.
Remarks of Thomas Ellwood upon, in 1686, 269.
The passion for, in women often leads to their ruin, 362.
Remarks of John M. Whitall upon assuming the plain, of Friends, 395.
Experience of a church member in yielding to Divine requirements respecting, 395.
Drexel family. Notice of charitable acts of members of the, 255.
Dudley Mary. Anecdote of, 323.
Dunkards. Charitable acts of, towards their fellow-members in Kansas, 263.

Earnest watcher. Essay entitled, The, 186.
Easter. The observance of, a return towards Popery, 356.
Editorial.—Remarks on the strikes and labor troubles at Chicago, 7. 39; On increasing the circulation of THE FRIEND, 7. 103; Notice of an account of the Society of Friends, published by "The Christian Literature Company of New York," 7; Notice of a second edition of "Witness for Christ," by Edward Backhouse and Charles Tyler, 7; Remarks on the issue of The American Friend, 15; Remarks on the maintenance of sound doctrine as incumbent upon the church, 23; Remarks on the beneficial effects upon the Society of Friends in America, by the revival of the discipline in 1755, 47; On the testimony of Friends against the pastoral system, 55; Remarks on the advocacy of the pastoral system by The American Friend, 63; On the instances of singing proceeding from a sense of God's love in the heart, recorded by early Friends, 71; On one of the causes of a spurious ministry in the church, 79; On the necessity of painful experiences in promoting our spiritual growth, 87; On the refreshment and spiritual growth of members in the silent meetings of Friends, 103; Remarks in reference to the proposed visit of Hannah H. Stratton to Great Britain, 103; Notice of an appeal by H. H. Bonwill, 103; Comments on a remark of an Episcopal bishop on the essential doctrine of the influence of the Holy Spirit, 111; Notice of "Footprints and Waymarks," 112; Notice of remarks upon the danger of entering upon religious work without the pure leading of the Spirit of Truth, 120; Remarks on a recent decision of the Meeting for Sufferings in London not to resume the publication of Friends' books, 127; Remarks on the necessity of walking in the "old paths" in the religious profession of our Society, 127; On obituary notices, &c., 128; Remarks on the repeated issue of doctrinal statements by Friends of the nature of a creed, 135; Remarks on the expression of "Two evils choose the least," 143. 199; On the sad ending of a man trusting for the forgiveness of his sins to a Roman Catholic priest, 151; Notice of the Life of John G. Whittier, 159; On the operation of the Holy Spirit as the only effectual agent in man's conversion, 159; Notice of Incidents in the life of Richard Davies, by Wm. C. Allen, 160; A correction, 160; Notice of minutes on the state of Society of New England, and Iowa Yearly Meetings, 167; Notice of an Address to our fellow-citizens issued by the Quarterly Meeting of Friends of Philadelphia, 167; Notice of "Wavelets," by D. S. Pennell, 168; Lessons drawn from the case of George Keith, 175; On the sound Christian belief of the early Friends as evidenced in the case of Jeffrey Bullock, 183; Remarks on misstatements contained in an article by E. M. Camp, on Quakerism, published in The Outlook, 191; Notice of a tract by W. A. Sellew on ordaining women as preachers, 199; Notice of a meeting of Friends at the "Sunday Breakfast Association" rooms, 199. 255; Notice of a minute of Ohio Yearly Meeting on the state of Society, 200; Remarks on a pamphlet entitled "Evangelicalism from the standpoint of the Society of Friends," 207; The effectual ministry of the gospel as preached by the early Friends was not due to their abilities as men, but to the power of God, 215; Remarks on the condition of the Society of Friends, 223; Comments on a criticism of a late contributed article, 231; On seeking for the Divine blessing to promote righteousness in the earth, 231; Notice of an exhortation to follow the teachings of Divine grace, 231; Notice of The United Friend, 239; Notice of an appeal from Mary M. Hobbs for help in the education of girls in North Carolina, 247. 255; Notice of an appeal for the destitute poor in Kansas, 247. 255. 294. 327. 368; On the blessed effects of religion in ameliorating the condition of mankind, 255; Appeal on behalf of sufferers by the hurricane in South Carolina, 255; On the origin of ecclesiastical vestments used by the Episcopal clergy, 255; Remarks on the boldness of our early Friends in times of persecution, 263; Reply to a correspondent respecting the reasons for not reading the Scriptures in the religious meetings of Friends, 271; Remarks on the sufferings of Friends in North Carolina who are opposed to innovations among them, 279; Notice of a remark by Joseph Morris on the unfavorable effect of First-day schools among Friends, 280; Remarks on the approach of the Yearly Meeting, 287; Correction of a statement, 287; Notice of an appeal of Friends of Germantown against the Boy's Brigade movement, 287; Caution against holding the meetings of different associations during the week of the Yearly Meeting, 295. 303; On the effect of religion in making men honest and upright, 303; Remarks on the introduction of the confessional in an Episcopal congregation, 303; On the endeavor to add numbers to the Society of Friends by lowering its standard, 303; Notice of proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 311. 319. 336; Remarks on a contributed article respecting the education of the Indians, 319; The grace of God is extended to the sinner as well as to the saint, 327; Remarks on an article respecting woman's rights, 327; Notice of a communication containing a correction, 328; Remarks on comments respecting Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 335; Caution against card playing, 344; Remarks on the practical effect of First-day schools among Friends, 351; Comments on the desire expressed by a correspondent on behalf of Hannah H. Stratton and others, 359; On the power of the Lord to carry on his own work, 359; Remark in reference to John Pease, 360. 368; On the position of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting in regard to correspondence with other bodies, 367; Remarks on a criticism, 368; Notice of the time of holding New England Yearly Meeting (Conservative), 368; Remarks on the death of a wealthy gambler, &c., 376; Notice of a remark respecting Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 376; On a danger of the study of the Scriptures without the submission of the heart to the work of grace, 383; Remarks on an obituary notice, 384; Notice of the proceedings of London Yearly Meeting, 391. 400; Remarks on the publication of valuable selections from the Epistles of London Yearly Meeting, 391; Notice of a fac simile of a protest against slavery by Friends at Germantown, 391; Remarks on doctrines promulgated by the Binns' Yearly Meeting of Ohio, 407; Notice of remarks by B. L. Wick, respecting the Musquakie Indians, 407; Notice of an impostor, 408; Remarks on the visits of ministers from Ohio and Philadelphia Yearly Meeting to distant lands, 415.

150004

XUM

Edmundson William. Notice of the boldness of, in time of persecution, 263.
Providential guidance of, 291.

Education in North Carolina. Essay entitled, 125.

Egotism. Remarks on, 43.

Egypt. Proposed erection of a fire-proof building in, to preserve a collection of relics, 135.
Recent discovery of remarkable jewels in, 186.
Notice of some of the latest results of antiquarian research in, 290.
On the labors of United Presbyterians in, and the character of the people of, 367.
Notice of an ancient papyrus found in, 382.
Sketches of life from papyri of ancient, 397.

Electricity. On a disease resembling sunstroke, caused by, 238.

Ellwood T. An epistle by, to Friends in 1686, 269.

Empress Frederick of Germany. Anecdote of, 207.

England. The Church of. Remarks on the disestablishment of, in Wales, 95.
On the ecclesiastical vestments used by, 191. 255.
Progress of ritualism in the, 239.
Romanizing tendencies in the, rebuked, 263.
Notice of a Society for the relief of members of, who are exiled on account of their objection to ritualistic practices, 327.
Progress of the movement to disestablish the, in Wales, 343.

Episcopal Church. Objections to the present system of education for the ministry in the, by a member of the, 271.
Remarks on the introduction of the confessional in a congregation of the, 303.
On the growing tendency in, towards ritualism, 347.

Ephesus. Recent explorations in ancient, 283.

Evans Elizabeth. Notice of the ministry of, 19. 204.
William. Notice of religious communications of, 3.
Thomas. Testimony of, to the continued and future maintenance of the standard of Quakerism, 245.

Evils. Of two, choose the least—an aphorism of Thomas á Kempis, 157.

Exhortation to Friends. An, 286.

Expositions. Great, a menace to public virtue, 399.

Experiences of a few days. Essay entitled, The, 414.

Extravagance and display. Remarks on the increase of, 46.

Faith. True, impels to all good works, 23.
True, not a mere assent to certain truths contained in the Scriptures, 90.

Faithful sayings. Essay entitled, 58.

Fall from grace. On the effect of a, 356.

False currency to be distinguished from the true. A, 322.

Farm. The largest producing, in the world, 187.

Fashion. Remarks on, 79.
tramples under foot every principle of Christianity, 132.

Father. Advice of a tender, to his son, 335.

Ferns. On the character and propagation of, 284.

First-day of the week. The evils of newspaper reading on the, 60. 167.
The use of, for business purposes, an increasing evil, 60.
First-day of the week. Injuries resulting from a disregard of, as a day of rest, as stated by a high official of the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., 239.
The closing of liquor saloons in New York on the, endorsed by the Roman Catholic clergy, 271.
On the views of Christians in the first three centuries respecting the, 303.
Notice of a remonstrance against unnecessary labor by bakers on the, 412.

Food. On the use of mushrooms as, 92.
The water-chestnut used as, in India, 126.
Earth eaten as, 215.
Plants used by the Indians as, 398.

Fothergill Samuel. On the gospel labors of, in America in 1755, 47.
The early beginnings in religious experience of the righteous pointed out by, 75.
Dr. John. Account of the labors and religious character of, 373. 377.

"Foolish and unlearned questions avoid." Incident entitled, 207.

Fox George. An epistle of, to Friends, 34.
Remarks of William Penn on the selection of, by the Lord as his messenger, 68.
Comforting declaration of, to Amos Stoddard, 178.
A charge of mysticism against, answered, 229.

Fowler John S. and Esther. Notice of movements of, in the performance of a religious visit to Egypt, &c., 367. 388. 391. 399. 407. 415.
Robert, captain of the Woodhouse. Account by, of his voyage to New England, in 1657, 371.

Football. The demoralization and physical injuries caused by, 191.
Not allowed in Indiana, as at present played, 236.
The brutality of, pointed out by President Eliot of Harvard, 236.

Franklin Benjamin. Anecdote of, 230.

Friends. Religious communications addressed to, 58. 90. 92. 98. 122, 123. 127. 150, 151. 157. 169, 170. 179. 182. 186. 189. 203. 242. 251. 257. 261. 263. 274. 277. 286. 298. 310. 331. 356, 357. 365. 378.
On the state of the Society of, 27. 36. 39. 98. 120. 122. 127. 189. 207. 215. 223. 259. 276. 279. 289. 303. 316. 324.
The standard writings of early, blessed to individuals in every generation since, 23.
Account of the, banished to Virginia in 1777, 3. 12. 22. 26. 35. 44. 50. 58. 69. 77. 83. 90. 182.
The testimony of, against music, not of modern origin, 29. 86.
An epistle of George Fox to, 34.
Encouragement to faithful, 36. 39. 263. 286. 359.
Remarks of John Wilbur on the ministry among, 39.
Address to, by London Yearly Meeting on the continued existence of slavery and the slave-trade, 42.
The benefits to the Society of, by the revival of the discipline in 1755, 47.
On the testimony of, against the pastoral system, 55. 61. 63. 114. 143. 207. 215. 223. 259. 261. 279.
Remarks on attending the Western Quarterly Meeting of, in the Eighth Month 1894, 59.
On the benefit to the youth of an early acquaintance with the writings of, 61.
testimonies. Remarks on, 66.
On the distinction between, and those who separated from them in 1827, 68. 76.
Notice of a meeting of, in San Francisco, California, 79.
Notice of Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting of, held Ninth Month 13th, 1894, 79.
On one of the causes of a spurious ministry among, 79.
Advice of, in Philadelphia in 1687 against selling rum to the Indians, 85.
The testimony of, against music, 29. 86. 109. 122. 147. 150.
Notice of a Meeting for Sufferings of, in Philadelphia, held Ninth Month 21st, 1894, 87.
Notice of an appointed meeting lately held by, 87.
Notice of the distribution of books giving account of the principles of, 87.
The views of, in regard to the bread and wine, 90.
A word to the scattered ones among, 92.
The silent meetings of, often blessed to the spiritual refreshment and growth of, 103. 298. 353.
Friends. The testimony of, against self-activity in religious work, 120. 279.
Remark of Ann Branson, respecting a ministry among, 127.
Notice of the care of, in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting to extinguish the Indian title to lands, 132.
On the repeated issue of statements by, of their doctrines, 135.
of Tecumseh meeting. An Address to, by John Bullard, 142.
The testimony of, against preparing sermons to be delivered, 143. 363.
On the testimony of, against water baptism, &c., 147. 389. 393. 401. 412.
On the exercises of, to maintain their testimony against war in the Revolutionary War, &c., 149. 161. 172.
Concern of, in Philadelphia in 1707, that the Truth be not reproached by a display of superfluous things at marriages, 159.
On the origin and service of men's Monthly Meetings of, 162.
On the character of the, who settled Pennsylvania, and of the Scotch-Irish of Pennsylvania, 165.
Notice of an address to our fellow-citizens issued by the Quarterly Meeting of, in Philadelphia, 167.
Selections from the Epistles of London Yearly Meeting of, 169. 177. 185. 193. 201. 209. 217. 225. 233. 241. 249. 257. 265. 273. 281. 289. 297. 305. 313. 321. 329. 337. 345. 353. 361. 369. of the Quarterly Meeting in Philadelphia. An Address of, to their fellow-citizens, 170.
Notice of the labors of, in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting against slavery, 173.
Lessons of instruction to, from the case of George Keith, 175.
Address to the young members of the Society of, 179.
Remarks of J. E. Southall, on the Society of, as a factor in the world's history, 189.
Remarks on misstatements respecting, by E. M. Camp, 191.
The testimony of, to the offices of Christ both in his outward and inward manifestations in the case of Jeffrey Bullock, 183. 206.
Remarks on doctrines now preached, which are contrary to those of, 207.
Remarks on the nature of the effectual ministry of the early, 215. 364.
Advice of, frequently to read in the Holy Scriptures and instruct their children therein, 209. 217.
Advice of John Barclay in reference to plainness of dress, 218.
Advice of London Yearly Meeting in 1738 in regard to the ministry, 225. 353.
Charges against, answered, 229.
How I came to be a Friend, by Phebe R. Gifford, 239.
Testimony of Thomas Evans to the continued maintenance of the standard of, 245.
The hindrance to the spread of the principles of, by mission meetings as held in England, 259.
An epistle to, in 1686, by Thomas Ellwood, 269.
The reasons of, for not reading the Holy Scriptures in their religious meetings, 271.
On the dangers to, from financial prosperity, &c., 275.
Remarks of Joseph Morris on the causes of the recent dissensions among, in Great Britain and this country, 276.
Remarks on the above, 316.
On the unfavorable effect of First-day schools among, 280.
An appeal of, in Germantown, Philadelphia, to their Christian friends and neighbors, 282.
Questions about, answered, 286.
Advice of, against joining secret societies, 294.
On the endeavor to add members to the Society of, by lowering its standard, 303.
Advice to, to know the governing hand of the Lord, 348.
Epistle of Stephen Crisp to, 350.
Remarks on the younger members of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of, 354.
Notice of the effect of the faithful maintenance of the testimonies of, upon other religious bodies, 357.
Remarks on the maintenance of love as referred to among, by the second query, 357.

Friends. Advice of David Hall to, not to be too much discouraged, and comments, 359.
The testimony of, respecting the ministry, 363.
The faithfulness of, during persecution, 370. 409.
Divine judgments following the persecutors of, 409.
Fox hunting. Remarks on the cruelty of, as "sport," 267.
Free Masonry. Testimony of a Free Mason against, 324.
The death penalties prescribed by, 404.
Free Quakers. Comments on a recently published history of the, 340.
Funeral of ex-Governor Curtin performed without singing to dispel the solemnity of it. The, 133.

Games. The serious objections to college, 203.
Gambler. Comments on the death of a wealthy, 376.
Gambling in any form prohibited by the recently adopted Constitution of New York, 111.
A petition to open halls for, in Denver, arouses determined opposition, 199.
a frequent accompaniment of games of football, 237.
The habit of, fatal to honesty, 308.
Gather the fragments. Essays entitled, 3. 18. 130 147. 204.
Geology. On arguments advanced by, in regard to the antiquity of man, 2. 14. 21. 30.
Notice of the, of Northern New Jersey, 20. 28.
Notice of bone caves, near Port Kennedy, Pa., 173.
On the, of the Pickering lead mines, 326.
Geometry. Successful experience of a teacher, with a pupil in, 134.
Getting mad at the wrong time. Extract entitled, 277.
Gould Thomas B. Extracts from a letter by, respecting James Scribbens, 212.
Gray Charles A. Lessons taught by the death of, in a heathen land, 379.
Grant. Anecdote of General U. S., 404.

Hamlin Cyrus, the baker. Anecdote of, 350.
Handsome is that handsome does. Incident entitled, 405.
Harrison Sarah. Brief notice of the religious labors of, 322.
Hatton Robert. Remarkable conviction and conversion of, 276.
Hawk from a handsaw. Remarks on the expression, A, 195.
Hawthorne Nathaniel. Anecdote of, 187.
Haydock Roger. Account of the convincement of, 266.
He who runs may read. Extract entitled, 349.
Comments on the above, 368.
Health. The effects of the intemperance of parents upon their offspring, 29. 375.
The successful efforts to preserve, used in constructing a railroad in the interior of Africa, 62.
A large number of cases of insanity due to long continued mental stress, 62.
On the injury to the, of women, by tight dressing, 62.
On the treatment of infants in hot weather, 70.
The danger to, from the accumulation of carbonic acid gas in deserted buildings, 106.
The effect of alcohol upon the heart, 143.
Thin white flannel recommended as a dress in hot climates, 182.
Remark of a physician on the treatment of consumptives, 238.
On electrical sunstroke, 238.
On the effects upon, of disregarding the First-day of the week, as a day of rest, 239.
The effect of beer-drinking in producing Bright's disease, 255.
The effect of tobacco in producing disease of the heart, 259.
The effect of immoderate bicycle riding on the, 261.
Labor good for the, of even delicate people, 300.
On the sterilizing value of soap, 318.
On the influence of the mind in restoring, 324.
The brain grows heavier when we think, 326.
The danger to, from a foul cellar, 380.
Healy Christopher. Notice of religious communications of, 3.
Helium. Notice of the probable existence of, as a new element, 342.
Hemenway Augustus and Mary. Remarkable incidents in the life of, 11.
Heroism. An instance of, 275.
Hill Rowland. Anecdote of, 204.
Himalayan Lake. Account of the new, 180.
History. From a certain standpoint, every event in, is an ever-present reality, 204.
Holy Spirit. The doctrine of the influence of the, as held by Friends, receiving increased recognition by other professors, 111.
The presence of, in the Church, gives it its real power, 127.
The only effectual agent in man's conversion, 159.
The testimony of Friends to the perceptible guidance of the, 233.
On searching our hearts in the light of the, 291.
The daily renewal of the, needful, 314.
On walking in the, 386.
Holy Scriptures. The distribution of, in Uganda, Africa, 71.
Remarks on the evidences of Divine inspiration in the, 110.
Illustrations of, from Oriental customs, &c., 133. 139. 141. 162 204, 205. 215. 243. 262. 290. 317. 332, 333. 342. 382.
not to be spiritually understood, but through the Holy Spirit, 150. 410.
Friends earnestly advised to be diligent in reading the, and instructing their children in the, 209. 217.
The sublimity of passages in the, admitted by sceptics, 230.
The annual circulation of the, in Italy, now exceeds that of any other book, 231.
Reasons for not calling the, the Word of God, 250.
Reasons why Friends do not read the, in their religious meetings, 271.
A few notes on the Moeso-Gothic translation of the, 309.
Remarks on Anthony Purver's translation of the, 374.
Statistics of the distribution of the, 375. 391.
A danger from the study of the, without a submission of the heart to the work of grace, 383.
A portion of, made instrumental in reclaiming a prodigal, 386.
Hoskens Jane. Account of the life and religious experience of (continued from Vol. lxvii: p. 411), 4. 13.
Honest dealings. Illustrations of, 326.
How I came to be a Friend, by Phebe R. Gifford, 239.
How to have a good servant. Extract entitled, 306.
Howard Association of London. Commendation by, of the separate system in prisons, as practised in Philadelphia, 226.
Housekeepers. Advice to young, to live within their income, 348.
Howell Jacob. Certificate of Chester Monthly Meeting of Friends on behalf of, 266.
Humility. Remarks on, 287.
Hungary. Incidents showing the progress of religious liberty in, 223.
Hunt Nathan. Letter of, to Sarah Cresson, 307.
Hydrogen. The liquefaction of, 342.

Impressiveness of silence. The, 133.
Incident. Essay entitled, An, 210.
Incidents and Reflections. Essays entitled, 291. 346. 355. 370. 379. 385. 395. 403. 409.
India. Notice of persecution of opponents of the opium traffic in, 47. 55. 135.
Old fortresses in, unhealthy, 106.
Birds' nests in, not disturbed by boys, 126.
The water chestnut of, 126.
The effects of wild fire in, 151.
The making of a coffee plantation in, 151.
Account of destruction caused by a flood in, 180.
Marrying a stone and a shrub in, 205.
Superstitious belief in, respecting the Pipol tree, 207.
Testimony of a Brahmin to the excellence of the Christian religion in, 359.
Indians. Minute of Friends of Phila. in 1687, against selling rum to the, 85.
Notice of the Seneca, in Western New York, 87.
Conclusions arrived at, by the Mohonk Indian Conference, of 1894, respecting the, 127.
Notice of the efforts of Friends to extinguish the title of, to lands in Virginia, 132. 140.
On the present condition of the Navajo, 181.
A narrative of a sojourn among, during last century, 197.
Account of the captivity of Frances Slocum among the, in last century, 202. 211.
Account of the Musquakie, in Iowa, 237. 242.
Comments on the above, 301. 307. 315. 352. 407.
Remarks on the, by George Balderston, 315.
Comments on the above, 319.
Indians. An illustration of prejudice against, 343.
The food plants of the, 398.
Notice of some Ute, 413.
Infidel. Incident in the life of Joseph Barker, a converted, 147.
The objections of an, answered, 340.
An, converted under the influence of the Holy Spirit. 385.
club. Remarkable prediction in reference to members of a, 67. 101.
Doubts Remarks of M. D'Aubigné upon, dispelling, 275.
Testimony borne by an, to the gospel of Christ, 407.
Industry. The advantages of, 126.
Intemperance. The connection of secret societies with saloon interests, 26.
The effects of, upon offspring, 29. 375.
Declaration of Methodist bodies against the liquor saloon, 39.
On total abstinence from, for our own sakes, 53.
Address by Friends of Ohio on the liquor traffic, 54.
A drunkard's resource, 63.
Notice of the annual expenditure for intoxicants in Penna., 75.
A doctor's advice to a drunkard, 111.
Advice of Geo. W. Childs to maintain strict temperance, 119.
Sparrows wiser than some men in avoiding, 135.
in an African, overcome by Divine grace, 139.
The effect of alcohol upon the heart, 143.
Social wine drinking marks a lower Christian standard now, than formerly, 147.
Sad illustration of the effects of 151. 180. 415.
The complicity of church members, city officials and school directors with the sale of liquors in Phila., 187.
The evil effects of, upon the next generation, 231.
Manly stand of the late Senator Wilson, of Mass. against, 239.
On the effect of beer drinking in producing Bright's disease, 255.
Statistics of the immense consumption of intoxicating liquors in the United States, 263.
Praise of cold water as a beverage, by John B. Gough, 278.
A local option law to restrict, passed in Indiana, 294.
Notice of the healthy change in public sentiment upon the use of intoxicants, 298.
The secret of hard times in connection with, 311.
Restrictive features against, of a new law in Indiana, 311.
in London, discouraged by the efforts of the County Council, 335.
Comments on the general results of, 359.
The folly of spending hard earned money in, 383.
A man reclaimed from, by the affection of his child, 385.
The ravages of, among the natives of West Africa, 405.
Report of the Franklin Reformatory Home for the victims of, 407.
The loss of the ship Neptune due to, 410.
The ravages of, in Belgium, 399.
A temptation to, resisted by a Japanese youth, 404.
Iron. Notice of the very thin sheets of, 183.
Irreverent burlesque justly censured, 63.
Items. 6. 23. 39. 47. 55. 63. 71. 79. 87. 95. 103. 111. 127. 135. 143. 159. 167. 191. 199. 207. 223. 231. 239. 255. 263. 271. 279. 294. 302. 311. 327. 335. 343. 351. 359. 367. 375. 391. 399. 407.

Jackson William. Account of the visit of, to England, in 1802-5, 253. 260.
Japanese youth. Triumph of principle in the experience of a, 404.
Jeremiah. Remarks on the faith of the prophet, 355.
Jest. The ruinous habit of turning everything into, 340.
Jerusalem. Notice of underground treasures and monuments in and near, 299.
Jews. The ceremony of releasing a widow from her husband's brother, among, 103.
Job. Remarks on the character of, 262.
Jones Ann, of England. Remarks of, at a meeting in Philadelphia, 314.
Notice of, as an extraordinarily gifted minister, 324.
Jungle-men and their ladders, 54.

Kansas. Notice of an appeal for destitute poor in, 247. 255. 327.
Report of expenditure of money for the relief of the poor in, 294.
Remark on the character of certain lands in, 368.
Kentucky. A judge refuses to deliver a colored man to the authorities of, 333.
King Martha Testimony of Woodbridge Monthly Meeting, England, concerning, 323.
Kinsey Phebe. Notice of death and religious character of, 19.
Knowledge. The danger of trusting upon, apart from Divine guidance, 157.

Labor. Remarks on strikes and other troubles connected with, 7. 39. 111.
On the duty of an employer to treat his employees as Christian brethren, 279.
riots, a lynching by wholesale, 39.
Lady and the surplice. Essay entitled, The, 347. 356.
Language. The testimony of Friends to the Scripture, of thou and thee, 177. 395.
Lawyer rebuked. A, 115.
Learning. On making an idol of, 380.
Letchworth John. Account of, written by his daughter Mary, 306.
Letter of Israel Pemberton, 4. 22. 59. 69. 90.
Mary Pemberton, 3. 35. 44. 45. 77. 78. 91.
John Pemberton, 12. 58. 83.
Hannah Pemberton, 13. 69. 78.
Phineas Pemberton, 35.
James Pemberton, 36. 50. 58.
Rachel Parke, 50.
John Crew and Edward Stabler, 69.
Isaac Zane, 69.
Edward Stabler, 69.
Sally Pemberton, 78.
George Churchman, 83. 91.
Henry Drinker, 90.
Lloyd Balderston, 67. 101.
William Caton, 115.
Barclay Stratton, 218. 227. 234.
John Finch Marsh, 223.
Rachel C. Mather, 254.
Frank Buckman, Jr., 295.
D. H. Williams, 295.
Thomas Clarkson, 302.
Nathan Hunt, 307.
Asenath Clark, 314.
Jane Watson, 322.
Jane Snowdon, 322.
Benjamin Hoyle, 330.
John and Esther Fowler, 388.
Josiah W. Leeds, 412.
Liberalism often the result of an absence of convictions, 26.
Light on a dark journey. On recognizing providential deliverances, entitled, 4.
Life. On making the best use of every part of, 234.
Life-saver. Account of Capt. Hans Doxrud, a, 375.
Lincoln Abraham. Anecdote of, 188. 405.
Lindley Jacob. Memoranda concerning the life and character of, 116.
Lister Cunliff. The remarkable business career of, 367.
Litigation. Notice of the great cost of, in a case in Iowa, 207.
Little things in a religious life. Remarks upon, 239.
Living for life's sake. Extract entitled, 276.
London. The observance of law in the crowded streets of, 159.
Improvements in, effected by the County Council, 335.
Look at the blue sky. Incident entitled, and comments, 52.
Looking unto God. Incident illustrating, 107.
Lord's Supper. Spiritual views respecting The, 302.
Lottery. The, is morally wrong, 85.
A bill against the, passed by the Congress of the United States, 294.
Lovers of light and truth. Essay entitled, To the, 203. 211.
Comments on the above, 231.
Lynching of colored people in the Southern States. The, 31.
by wholesale. Labor riots called, 39.

Marriage. Notice of the declarations of Roger Haydock and Eleanor Lowe, at their, 130.
Concern of Friends of Phila., in 1707, that the Truth may not be reproached by superfluous things at, 159.
Marriages. George Y. Wood and Mary Eleanor Maris, 96; James G. Biddle and Mary Hutton, 104; John E. Hinshaw and Elizabeth B. Smith, 208; Joseph E. Meyers and Mary J. Worthington, 240; Edward Maxwell and Eliza Johnson, 240; Joseph H. Clayton and Caroline Waring, 360; Albertus L. Hoyle and Mable B. Wilson, 368.
Make it plain. Remarks on instructing children, entitled, 116.
Mayor wants to see thee. The, 12.
Magnet. The largest, in the world, 222.
Marsh John Finch. Advice of, to truly concerned Friends, 223.
Letter of, on the exercise of the ministry, 269.
Masters. No man can serve two, 268.
Metals. On an effect of light upon, 247.
Memorial of Goshen Monthly Meeting, Pa., concerning Phebe W. Roberts. A, 411.
Methodists. Declarations of, against the liquor saloon, 39.
Milhous Mary. A short account of the life and peaceful close of, 229.
Miracles. Remarks on efforts to induce a disbelief in, 338.
Minister. Extract entitled, A bold, 283.
Ministry. Account by Jane Hoskens of her call to the, 4.
Account by Mary Alexander of her call to the, 19.
Observations of John Wilbur on the, 39.
On the testimony of Friends in regard to the, as opposed to the pastoral system, 55. 61. 63. 114. 143. 207. 223. 259. 261. 279.
Useful caution expressed by Samuel Bownas in regard to the, 71.
On one of the causes of a spurious, in the church, 79.
The testimony of Friends is against preparing sermons to be delivered, 143. 363.
Cautions to be observed in relation to the, 170.
A gift in the, conferred at times upon persons of very weak mind, 212.
On the nature of the effectual, of the early Friends, 215. 261. 363.
Advice of London Yearly Meeting in 1738 in regard to the, 225. 353.
Advice of John Banks upon the, 236.
A remark of William Penn upon the drift of true, 313.
The effectual, of the Apostles and early Christians, 323.
Advice in regard to the, 346.
Moravians and their testimony against war. The, 363.
Mother. A lying. 114.
Mother's care. A thoughtful and loving, 183.
Music. The testimony of Friends against, not of modern origin, 29. 150.
Remarks by Samuel Emlen against, 86.
Sophistical reasoning in favor of, answered, 103. 122. 147. 150.
Testimony respecting the evil effects of, from an advocate of, and comments thereon, 109.
The nature and character of the natural mind that pleads for, 150.
A farewell to, 284.
The demoralization caused by, in the professing church, 356.

Nantucket. The plundering of, during the Revolutionary war prevented, 149.
Napoleon. Interview of Metternich with, in 1813, 268.
Nasmyth James. Planting seeds by artillery proposed by, 127.
Natural history, &c. On the limit of size in animals, 29; The kite, 29; Rooks, 50; Butterflies, 63; Bees demoralized by alcohol, 70; Insect excretions, 71; Mimicry in insects, 86. 279; Cobras, 86; Animals as pets, 102; A flying squirrel, 102; A tame horn-bill, 102; Hornets in India, 110; Sagacity in an elephant, 110; Tigers in India, 110. 118. 142, 143. The rapid flight of a carrier pigeon, 134; Insects covering the front of a locomotive, 134; English sparrows, 135; The dog, 143 230. 309. 341; Tropical leeches, 158; The crow, 166; flying-fish, 174; East India lizards, 175; The periodical cicada, 182; Fireflies, 182; A flight of butterflies, 182; Ants, 182; Effect of sunlight on mules long kept in darkness, 183; The invincible character of the soldier-ant, 190; Nest of a tree ant, 190; Sagacity of the elephant, 191; The cockroach, 194; The mongoose, 197; East Indian crows, 206; Means of protection afforded different insects, 206; A tamed chaffinch 206; The musk-rat, 210; Flying-fish, 222; Owls, 222; The butcher-bird, 230; On the changes in animals from environments, 230; The destruction of timber caused by the pine-bark beetle, 246; Foraminifera, 246; Wholesale destruction of caterpillars, 254; On branding East Indian cattle, 254; Fishes playing, 254; Spiders and their webs, 261; Ant swarms, 278; On animal life in a Guiana forest, 286. 302. 318; Surprising feat of a spider, 293; The interdependence of plants and animals, 310; Rabbits, 335; Honesty in dogs, 341; The skunk, 351; Intelligence in a cat, 351; The turkey-buzzard, 366; Forest insects, 382; The struggle for life in the tropics, 382; Wild honey-bees, 398; A baby beaver, 398; A bovine garden enclosed, 414.
Nebraska. Report respecting expenditure of money for the relief of sufferers in, 327.
Negro. The exclusion of a, from a public conveyance unlawful, 271.
New England flowers. Notes on, 78.
New Year. The, a dream, 179.
Nitrogen. On the preparation of solid, 199.
No turning back. Account of a hero, William Brown, entitled, 332.
None can live wholly to himself. Extract entitled, 306.
North Carolina. Appeal for help in the education of girls in, 247.
Nova Scotia. A trip to, 76.

Obedience. Essay entitled, 242.
Old manuscripts, 302. 306. 314. 322. 330.
One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all. Essay entitled, 157.
One-man system. Objections to the, in the church, 279.
Opium. The great injury done to China by the traffic in, 6.
Persecution in India of persons opposed to the traffic in, 47.
Efforts proposed to be made in England against the manufacture of, 135.
Opportunities. On making use of neglected, 278.
Oriental hospitality. On, 262.
Orphanage established by North Carolina Yearly Meeting. Notice of, 279.
Out of work. On discouraging indolence, entitled, 111.
Overcoming evil with good, 149.
Oxygen. Properties of frozen, 190.

Paper made from the ramie, used by the Bank of France, 62. made from a tree and printed on in twenty-four hours, 318.
Parables. Incidents and Reflections entitled, 403.
Parties. Extract from the advices of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting against the attendance of, 123.
Pastoral system. On the testimony of Friends against the, 55. 61. 63. 114. 223. 261. 279.
Peaceful retreat for old age. Account of a, 94.
Pemberton Israel. Brief notice of, 140.
Israel. Letters of, 22. 59. 69. 90.
Mary. Letters of, 3. 35. 44, 45. 77, 78. 91.
John. Letters of, 12. 58. 83.
Hannah. Letters of, 13. 69 78.
Phineas. Letter of, 36.
James. Letters of, 36. 50. 58.
Penn William. Religious advice of, 333.
Testimony of, on the divinity of Christ, 381.
Pennsylvania. On the character of Friends, and the Scotch-Irish in the early history of, 165.
Petty Sir William. Notice of the life and labors of, in Ireland, 348.
Peril, an index of power. Essay entitled, 262.
Philadelphia. Address of the Quarterly Meeting of Friends of, to their fellow-citizens, 170.
Complicity of church members, city officials and school directors with the sale of liquor in, 187.
Physical training. The need of more general education in regard to, 311.
Pickering lead mines. Account of a recent visit to, 326.
Pious blind woman. Account of a, 308.
Poetry.—Original.—On the death of Hannah Cornell, 52; Death, 188; To young Friends at Muncy, 204; While we may, 252; Her legacy, 260; Threefold, 276; Apple blossoms, 332; Retrospection, 380.
Poetry.—Selected.—Alone with God, 133; As one who serves, 181; Answered prayer, 317; The border-land, and comments, 61; Between the gates, 172; Be with us, Christ, 188; The backwoodsman's possessions, 236; The better thing, 380; Consider Him, 44; The City of the living, 164; Christ the sure refuge, 229; The calf path, 413; In the dark, 236; To Daniel Wheeler, 325; Furnace heat, 125; A fellow's mother, 197; Farewell to Music, 284; "God's grain," 109; The home garden, 5; Home and Fireside, 77; Hebrew hymn, 197; Hard lines, 404; In cælo quies, 213; Impressions, 268; Is it true? 357; Lines by Dudley Field, 38; Lines by Ada Bowles, 100; A little while, 125; The life of trust, 172; Lines, 268; Lines by J. A. Garfield, 348; Living stones, 357; The land of "pretty soon," 365; Mutual benevolence, 85; My Shepherd, 221; Mother's bonnet, 317;

One, two, three, 12; Old and young, 44; The old-fashioned wife, 188; One step at a time, 340; One of God's heroes, 365; Our dwelling place in all generations, 404; Plowed under, 133; Prayer, 164; The Quaker Meeting, 293; The railway of life, 28; The roll-call, 70; Retrospection, 141; The rainbow, 252; The sifting of Peter, 221; The secret of the brook, 236; In the secret of thy presence, 293; The spirit of war, 300; Sorrow-touched, 348; Simon Stone, 373; Tarry with me, 12; Trust in God and do the right, 157; "There shall be no night there," 340; The unbarred door, 148; What doth it matter? 28; "When shall I wake?" 94; Where mother is, 117; The water-fowl, 157; What time is it? 236; The white rose of Miami, 244; Wings, 244; By a way thou knowest not, 260; Who is thy neighbor? 308; Watch and pray, 332; You never can tell, 308.

Plants.—The Japanese wineberry, 1; The cypress, 6; Plants bearing the largest leaves, 29; The nest-egg gourd, 38; Sweet peas, 46; The Downing mulberry, 46; The Paulownia, 47; The shining willow, 47; The sour-wood tree, 52; The influence of frost on vegetables, 62; Bay-berry, 78; The Burnet saxifrage, 84; The Cassia, 84; Mushrooms in Japan, 93; The orange hawk-weed, 98; The hardhack, 98; Edible and poisonous mushrooms, 100; The marsh trefoil, 106; The lotus, 106; The lycopodium, 106; The fringed gentian, 118; Plants found near Budd's Lake, N. J., 106. 118. 122. 390; Plants in the jungle of India, 118; The nettle of Timor, 118; The asters, 122; The water chestnut, 126; The wisdom of the Creator displayed in providing for the dispersion of plants, 127; On the growth of exogenous trees, 141; On the leaves of plants, 149; On the number of plants, 167; Indian corn, 167; An apple orchard 116 years old in Virginia, 182; The pipol tree, 207; A beautiful fungus, 245; A dock valuable for tanning purposes, 246; Night-blooming plants, 261; The rampant growth of plants in a Guiana forest, 270. 325; Description of a tropical forest, 278; Ferns, 284; The razor grass of Guiana, 286; Hazel blossoms, 299; Fertilization of the symplocarpus, 299; The shad blossom, 299; Climbing plants, 325; Viola rotundifolia, 339; The Talinum, 339; Equisetum, 339; The mistletoe family, 350. 358; Bulb-producing plants, 354; The adder's tongue, 354; The largest forest in the world, 359; The green violet, 366; The star flower, 390; The buckbean, 396; The marsh cinquefoil, 396; The cinnamon fern, 396; The golden club, 396; The water violet, 402; The persimmon, 402.

Poor. Legacy of Michael Yoakley, of Margate, England, for the relief of the, 94.

Politeness. True, the offspring of religion, 402.

Prayer. The benefit of, in promoting righteousness in the earth, 231.

Presbyterians. Notice of the United, 376.

Priestcraft must disappear, 203. 211.
The origin of, 244.

Prisons. Recommendation of the separate system for inmates of, as practised in Philadelphia, 226.

Prohibition of liquor-selling. On the need of, 180.

Promptness in a clerk establishes him in the confidence of his employer, 135.

Prophecies of Daniel. A refutation of sceptical objections to, 340.

Providence. Man prone to underestimate the works of, 399.

Providential dealings. Love the best interpreter of, 380.
deliverances, 4. 308. 385.
guidance. On the certainty of, 28.
Illustrations of, 291. 347.

Profanity rebuked, 283.

Prescription cured her. Extract entitled, The, 259.

Public preaching. Notice of the imprisonment of William F. Davis in Boston for, and his appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, 271.

Publicans. Notice of the occupation, &c, of, in the East, 382.

Putnam Douglas. Incident of charitable giving in the life of, 237.

Punctuation. Illustration of the value of, 319.

Reading matter. Warning by Mary Alexander of the pernicious effects of unprofitable. 10.

Religion. Sentimental feelings distinguished from, 143.
A, which lays stress upon outward services more attractive to a large class than that which involves a severe struggle with corruption, 205. 207.
An inconsistent professor of, can do much harm to the cause of, 229.
Remarks on the injury done to the work of, by disobedience in little things, 239.

Religion. The blessed effects of, in promoting the temporal welfare of mankind, 255.
The effect of, to make people honest and upright, 303.
An inconsistent professor of, may do much harm, 316.
No, without dogma, 362.
The way and work of, in the heart, 374.
Silence often necessary in the work of, 379.

Repentance. The nature and effects of, 251.

Revolutions in the kitchen. Extract entitled, 34.

Reproofs of instruction, the way of life. The. 362.

Religious liberty. The progress of, in Hungary, 223.
sects. On the number of, &c., in the United States, 314.

Rich man." Extract entitled, "A mighty, 188.

Ridicule employed as a deterrent in Russia, 228.

Righteousness. On the need of a revival of, 35.

Ritualism. Observations on the progress of, in the United States and England, 239.

Rhoads Jonathan E. Notice of the movements of, in Great Britain, &c., 367. 391. 399. 415.

Roberts Phebe W. A memorial of Goshen Monthly Meeting concerning, 411.

Roman Catholics. A bequest for masses by, held to be valid, 63.
The New Testament printed by, for distribution in Uganda, Africa, 71.
Notice of a French preacher among, exalting Jesus Christ as the Saviour of mankind, 103.
The native and alien factions among the, in the United States antagonistic, 111.
A case of restitution for a wrong committed by, in 1731, 111.
Sad infatuation of a man trusting for the forgiveness of his sins to priests among the, 151.
Forbidden to join secret societies, 199.
Objections to nuns as teachers in public schools, 207.

Roman Catholicism Remarks on, 214.
The progress towards, among Episcopalians, 347. 356.

Rotch William. Incidents in the life of, 149.

Round about Rocouncey. Essays entitled, 1. 9. 17. 38. 46. 60. 67. 75. 84. 92. 100. 106. 117. 252. 267.

Sabbath formalism in Jews, 196.

Sailor. Conversion of a, through the exemplary conduct of a brother, 385.

Saltaire. Conclusions reached at, that self-respect may be enfeebled by over-giving, 63.

Saluting no man by the way. Observations on the meaning of, &c., 342.

Sands David. Observations on the religious character and remarkable incidents related of. 333. 360. 368.

Salvation. The way of, pointed out, 372.

Saved. Remarks on the arrival of the "La Gascoyne," entitled, 318.

School. Notice of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial, 375.

Schools. On the probable effect of the surrender by parents of the training of their children to teachers of First-day, 10.
Serious objections to the games now popular at many, 203.
Objections to nuns as teachers of public, 207.
Notice of a protest of Friends in London, in reference to religious teaching in, 207.
On the practical effect of First-day, among Friends, 280. 351.
On the dangers of allowing the learning of the, to prevail over true religion, 287.
A bill to authorize military training in public, in Pennsylvania, defeated, 311.

Scientific notes, &c. 29. 54. 62. 70. 86. 102. 110. 118. 126. 134. 142. 151. 158. 166. 174. 182. 190. 199. 206. 222. 230. 238. 246. 254. 261. 270. 278. 286. 302. 310. 318. 325. 335. 341. 350. 358. 375. 382. 406. 414.

Scott Job. Religious exercises of, as a preparation for religious usefulness, 131.

Scott General. Anecdote of, in connection with emancipated slaves, 292.

Scotton Robert. Brief notice of the life and religious character of, 18.

Screws. Exceedingly small, for watches, 382.

Scribbens James. Brief account of the life, and gift in the ministry of, 212.

Secret Societies. Objections to, 7. 71.
The connection of, with saloon interests, 26.
often tyrannical, 71.
The true character of, 71.
The working of, in labor organizations, 79.
Roman Catholics forbidden to join, 199.

Secret Societies. The testimony and advice of Friends against joining, 294.
Testimony of a Free Mason against Free Masonry, 324.
The death penalties prescribed by Free Masons, 406.

Selections from Epistles of London Yearly Meeting, 169. 177. 185. 201. 209. 217. 225. 233. 241. 249. 257. 265. 273. 281. 289. 297. 305. 313. 321. 329. 337. 345. 353. 361. 369.
Comments on the above, 245. 250. 354. 411.

Set back. Remarks on persons who are considered singular, entitled, 79.

Seek first the kingdom of God, 365.

Sharpless Edward. Brief account of the last months of the life of, 386.

Ships talk. How, 317.

Show me the cellar. On sanitary precautions entitled, 380.

Siberia. Notice of the great forest in, 359.

Silence. The great power and service in, 379.

Significant purchase. A, 355.

Sincerity. On the derivation of the word, 412.

Slavery. Address to Friends upon the extensive existence of, in Africa, &c., 42.
On the enormous cost of extinguishing, in the United States, by the late war, 95.
Notice of the labors of Friends of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting against, 173.
Notice of a large family emancipated from, 292.
Letter of Thomas Clarkson, in 1819, on colonization in connection with, 302.
Notice of a fac simile of the protest of Friends at Germantown against, in 1688, 391.

Slocum Frances. Account of the captivity of, by the Indians, 202. 211.

Soap. The sterilizing value of, 318.

Sorrow. Acquiescence with, robs it of its bitterness, 205.

South Carolina sufferers by the hurricane of 1893. Appeal on behalf of the, 254. 255.

Spark arrester. On the government of the temper, entitled, A, 87.

Spiritual results are produced only by spiritual causes. 221.

Spring's return. Essay entitled, 299.

Steps to peace. Essay entitled, 331.

Stirredge Elizabeth. Faithfulness of, during the persecution of Friends, 370.

Story Thomas. Incident in the life of, relating to water baptism, 147.

Stratton Barclay. Letters of, written while a conscript soldier, 218. 227. 234.
Hannah H. Notice of the movements of, in Great Britain and Ireland, 343. 351. 359. 367. 375. 391. 399. 407. 415.
Comments on the above, 359.

Sugar. Incidents connected with the refining of, 5.

Summary of Events. 7. 15. 23. 31. 39. 48. 55. 64. 72. 80. 88. 96. 104. 112. 120. 128. 135. 144. 152. 160. 168. 176. 184. 192. 200. 208. 216. 224. 231. 240. 248. 256. 264. 272. 280. 287. 295. 303. 312. 320. 328. 336. 344. 352. 360. 368. 376. 384. 392. 400. 408. 416.

Sun flower day in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Account of, 74.

Sunlight. Effect of, upon painted surfaces, 71.

Sweden. Rambles in, 158. 164. 171.
Notes on, by Chas. Shieldstream, 274. 309.

Sympathy. A lesson upon showing, 263.

Take care of the rubbish. Extract entitled, 367.

Tear bottles in the East. Notice of, 141.

Temper. On the importance of governing the, 87.

Theatre. Abominable representations in a, in this city, prohibited, 111.
Address of Friends to the citizens of Philadelphia, in reference to the, 170.
A former actress earnestly advises young women against the deceptive allurements of the, 199.

Thibet. Description of the palace of the Grand Lama in, 370.

Thimble. The origin of the word, &c., 11.

Thunder-storms. On the dread of, 27.

Tides. On the remarkable, of the Bay of Fundy, 29.

Titus Israel D. and Cornelius Bowerman. Incidents connected with the ministry of, 285. 328.

Tobacco. A country preacher in New York induced to give up the use of, 70.
Business men in New York give the preference to boys who do not smoke cigarettes, 119.
The effect of, in producing disease of the heart, 259.
A warning against the use of cigarettes, 399.

Tract repository. Report of the publishers of the, for 1894, 196.
Travers Rebecca. Account of the convincement of, through the ministry of James Naylor, 365.
Trees. On mining for, 126.
Trials. Special, sometimes assigned to the faithful, for their further development, 95.
Trivial circumstances. Extract entitled, 319.
Trip. Account of a short summer, in Western New York, 98.
Tunnel under the Severn. Notice of the, 310.
Two bridges of a great engineer, 134.

Unconquerable men. Extract entitled, 258.
Unitarians. A wide divergence of views among, 23.
Universality of Divine grace. On the, 147.
University of Pennsylvania. Notice of the botanical garden of the, 406.
Useless and frivolous employments. The effect of, upon the soul, 327.

Vacation among the cliff ruins. A, 244. 250.
Vacation in Southern California. A, 330. 338.
Ventriloquist. Anecdote of a, 223.
Vessels. Description of a fire-drill on steam, 182.
Victoria, Queen of England. A prayer of, 322.
Virginia. Notice of the Friends exiled to, in 1777, 3. 12. 22. 26. 35. 44. 50. 58. 69. 77. 83. 90. 182.
Visit to North Carolina. A, 37. 51.
to Chester, Pa. A, 141.
to Port Kennedy, Pa. A, 174. to Wawa, Pa., 339.
A second, to Wawa, Pa., 366.
to Riddleton, N. J. A, 402.
Visiting the poor, afflicted or erring ones. Advice upon, in Gospel love, 277.
Vivisection. Remarks on the horrors of, 85.
Voyage of the Woodhouse. Account of the, and comments, 371.

Waiting for my boy. Anecdote of a mother's anxiety, entitled, 343.
Waldensian colony in N. Carolina. Notice of the, 351.
Wandering boy brought home. A, 346.
War. Statistics of the gigantic preparations for, in Europe, 7. 103.
Notice of a protest against boys' brigades, 39. 170. 282. 363.
On the enormous cost of the late civil, in the United States, 95.
A conscientious firm refuses to assist in equipping vessels of, 135.
The ravages, on Nantucket prevented, 149.
Belief of General Sheridan that arbitration will take the place of, 159.
Commiseration of a soldier, of children made orphans by, 159.
The tendency of the boys' brigade to foster the spirit of, 170. 194. 282. 363.
The testimony borne by Barclay Stratton against, 218. 227. 234.
True pictures of, made by a Russian, allowed of by the late Czar, 223.
On the pacific influence of the Prince of Wales in Europe, 223.
The United States the first of the great nations to set an example against, 231.
War. Things that make for murder and, 245.
Notice of a memorial of members of the English Parliament to the President and Congress of the United States in favor of arbitration instead of, and remarks upon it in Congress, 258.
Remarks on the destructive modern rifle bullet, 261.
Disregard of human life by Napoleon, 268.
Arbitration and disarmament advocated in the Austrian Parliament, 271.
The progress of arbitration between Great Britain and the United States, 282.
A testimony against, borne by a young man in Germany, 343.
A testimony against, formerly borne by Moravians, 363.
A soldier's experience of the horrors and miseries of, 364.
Erecting monuments to military characters, a violation of our testimony against, 391.
On the spirit of, 300.
Report of the Peace Society [England] 1894-5, in reference to, 395.
Warning. A general, against swindlers, 44.
A, against cigarettes, 399.
Water. An underground stream of, beneath Allegheny City, Pa., 406.
Water baptism as it is in history. By Cyrus W. Harvey, 389. 393. 401. 412.
Was Moses mistaken? Remarks on the Biblical account of the creation, entitled, 110.
Waste products. On using in the arts, 175.
Weather. On the folly of worrying about the, 246.
Western Quarterly Meeting of Friends held Eighth Month, 1894. Remarks on attending the, 59.
Westtown Boarding School. Concern of Joseph Scattergood for the children educated there, and comments, 202.
Wesley John. Reminiscences of, 394.
What an octogenarian has to say. Essay entitled, 310.
What is it that separates us? Remarks on the distinction between Friends and the Separatists of 1827, entitled, 68. 76.
What one sees. Extract entitled, 119.
Wheeler Daniel. Extract from an address of, to missionaries in New Zealand, 332.
Whitehead Anne. Brief account of the life and religious character of, 346.
Wilbur John. Prophetic words written by, in 1845, 39.
"Will ye also go away." Remarks on the course of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, entitled, 122.
Wilson Henry, the shoe-making Vice President. Notice of, 330.
Wilson Thomas. Testimony of James Dickinson respecting the religious character of, 323.
Winn Christopher. Brief narrative by, relating to his convincement, &c., 220.
Wood. On rendering, partially fireproof, 246.
Woolman John. Extracts from, 37. 180.
Woman. The eminent virtues ascribed to, in the Holy Scriptures, 226.
Women's rights. Remarks on, 254. 327.
Word to the scattered ones of our once favored Society. Essay entitled, A, 92.
to encourage and strengthen that which remains. A, 151.
Worship. The silent meetings of, often blessed to the refreshment and spiritual growth of their members, 103. 289.
The preciousness of silent, 106, 107. 133. 298.
Remarks on refreshment in the Lord during meetings for, 114.
Remarks against singing in meetings for, 147.
Silence as a preparation for, an essential and fundamental feature of Quakerism, 189. 353.
Advice of Stephen Crisp to Friends in reference to, 350.
Wrong act leaves a scar. Every, 292.
Wright Edward. Remarkable exercise in the ministry by, 355.

Year. A dream entitled, The new, 179.
Yearly Meeting. Canada, 1895. Notice of proceedings of, 415.
Dublin, 1895. Notice of proceedings of, 367.
Iowa, 1894 (conservative). Minute of women's 167.
Kansas (conservative), 1894. Notice of proceedings of, 143.
London, 1894. Address of, on the continued existence of slavery and the slave trade, 42.
Meeting for Sufferings of. Notice of action by, in relation to the opium traffic, &c., 55.
Notice of a map of meetings in, 63.
Selections from epistles of, 166. 177. 185. 193. 201. 209. 217. 225. 233. 241. 249. 257. 265. 273. 281. 289. 297. 305. 313. 321. 329. 337. 345. 353. 361. 369.
Remarks on the above, 245. 250. 354. 391. 411.
Remarks by John Barclay on the lapsed character of, 257.
1895. Notice of proceedings of, 391. 400.
Remarks on the early composition and character of, 414.
New England, 1894 (conservative). Minutes of, 167.
Notice of the time of holding, 368.
New York, 1895. Notice of the proceedings of, 391.
North Carolina, 1894. Notice of proceedings of, 37. 43. 51.
Ohio. Address by the Meeting for Sufferings of on the liquor traffic, 54.
1894. Notice of the proceedings of, 95. 200.
Remarks on the proceedings of, 276. 335, 336.
Oregon. Notice of, 55.
Philadelphia. Remarks on the course and concern of, 122. 367. 411.
Extract from the Christian advices issued by, 123.
1895. Notice of proceedings of, 311. 319.
Yoakley Michael. Notice of almshouses founded by, in Margate, England, 94.
Youth. On the advantage to, of an early acquaintance with the character and labors of their predecessors in our religious Society, 61.
Remarks on the care necessary to be exercised over, at a critical period, 63
An exhortation to the to know the work of their souls' redemption carried on, 182.

XUM

the eir

ing

nd
3.
nce

ry

d-

n's

o-

x-

on c.,

93.
55.
37.

91.

r-

r-

of,

of,

gs

of 56.

ny,

y,

ce
eed

ir

XUM